STATEMENT OF DEFENCE of CMKM DIAMONDS, INC.

1. Unless expressly admitted herein, the Defendant, CMKM Diamonds Inc. ("CMKM") denies each and every allegation of fact in the Statement of Claim and puts the Plaintiff to the strict proof thereof.
2. CMKM admits paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of the Statement of Claim.
3. In reply to paragraph 4 of the Statement of Claim, CMKM admits that it entered into a written contract with the Plaintiff and 1010 on or about October 20, 2005, but says that the "1010 Contract" speaks for itself. Among other things, the 1010 Contract provides that, with respect to 30,000,000 of the Plaintiff's shares provided to CMKM (the "30,000,000 Shares") CMKM would make any and all reasonable efforts to distribute the 30,000,000 Shares pro rata to the CMKM shareholders in accordance with applicable securities laws, rules and regulations.

4. In reply to paragraph 5 of the Statement of Claim, CMKM specifically denies the allegations stated therein and puts the Plaintiff to the strict proof thereof. Further and in the alternative, CMKM says that if there was any breach by 1010 of the 1010 Contract, which is denied, CMKM was not a party to any such breach and is in no way affected by it.

5. In reply to paragraph 6 of the Statement of Claim, CMKM specifically denies that it has breached the terms of the 1010 Contract as alleged or at all. In particular:

- (a) The 1010 Contract does not require the distribution of 30,000,000 Shares to occur within any specified time;
- (b) CMKM has made all reasonable efforts to distribute the 30,000,000 Shares;
- (c) The 1010 Contract required that the distribution of 30,000,000 Shares would only take place in accordance with applicable securities laws, rules and regulations and CMKM has at all times acted in a manner that is consistent with this requirement.

6. In the alternative, CMKM says that if it has breached the 1010 Contract, which is denied, such breach was not material and does not entitle the Plaintiff to claim against CMKM as alleged or at all.

7. Further, and in the alternative, CMKM says that if it has breached the 1010 Contract, which is denied, such breach does not entitle the Plaintiff to an injunction requiring CMKM to return the 30,000,000 Shares to the Plaintiff's treasury. In particular, such an order would be wholly inequitable as it would result in the Plaintiff receiving the benefit of the 1010 Contract for no consideration, or alternatively insufficient consideration.

8. Further, CMKM says that if it has breached the 1010 Contract, which is denied, CMKM has suffered no damages as a result of such breach, as alleged or at all. In the alternative, the Plaintiff has failed to mitigate its damages.

9. In reply to paragraphs 7 and 8 of the Statement of Claim, CMKM admits that it entered into a written contract with the Plaintiff on or about October 20, 2005, but says that the "CMKM Contract" speaks for itself. Among other things, the CMKM Contract provides that, with respect to 15,000,000 of the Plaintiff's shares provided to CMKM (the "15,000,000 Shares") CMKM would make any and all reasonable efforts to distribute the 15,000,000 Shares pro rata to the CMKM shareholders in accordance with applicable securities laws, rules and regulations.

10. In reply to paragraph 9 of the Statement of Claim, CMKM specifically denies that it has breached the terms of the CMKM Contract as alleged or at all. In particular:

- (a) The CMKM Contract does not require the distribution of 15,000,000 Shares to occur within any specified time;
- (b) CMKM has made all reasonable efforts to distribute the 15,000,000 Shares;
- (c) The 1010 Contract required that the distribution of 15,000,000 Shares would only take place in accordance with applicable securities laws, rules and regulations and CMKM has at all times acted in a manner that is consistent with this requirement.

11. In the alternative, CMKM says that if it has breached the CMKM Contract, which is denied, such breach was not material and does not entitle the Plaintiff to claim against CMKM as alleged or at all.

12. Further, and in the alternative, CMKM says that if it has breached the CMKM Contract, which is denied, such breach does not entitle the Plaintiff to an injunction requiring CMKM to return the 15,000,000 Shares to the Plaintiff's treasury. In particular, such an order would be wholly inequitable as it would result in the Plaintiff receiving the benefit of the CMKM Contract for no consideration.

13. Further, CMKM says that if it has breached the CMKM Contract, which is denied, CMKM has suffered no damages as a result of such breach, as alleged or at all. In the alternative, the Plaintiff has failed to mitigate its damages.

WHEREFORE the Defendant, CMKM Diamonds Inc., submits that this action be dismissed against it with costs.
